Additional Information

For our Dutch client near Maastricht we are looking for experienced ADR tank drivers. Most of the trips are starting on Monday morning and end on Friday or Saturday (back to base). This is transport of mainly class 3 ADR, liquids like oil and chalk water. The trips are mainly to Germany, Belgium and France. The driver does not need to pay for housing, as he can stay in the car during his work. He will come back to base a couple times in a week (always with an empty tank). At the base there are showers, washing machine, kitchen, television and internet. Different systems of working are possible.

ATENTIE!!! Inainte de angajare se va sustine un interviu cu angajatorul in care se verifica cunostintele conversationale de limba engleza / germana ale candidatului.
