

Brains Consulting is recruiting experienced PIN Nurses, who are already in UK

PINNED Nurses in Private Hospital – UK / LONDON

We currently have an Urgent need for one of our Clients based in the UK.

We appreciate during this situation with Covid-19 there is minimal intra country travel, hence our client is looking for UK based nurses that are NMC PINNED.

If you are already in UK, you are a PIN registered nurse already, and maybe ready for the next challenge

Below is further details of the Client

- Privately Run Respiratory Hospital – Great resources and Funding.
- Looking for Pinned Nurses who are currently in the UK.
- Respiratory Experience Desirable or General Medical Experience.
- Salary of the role is £24,500 - £31,500 dependant on prior experience.
- Looking for Candidates who are interested in long term careers and training for the future
- Affiliate of Guys & St Thomas NHS Trust (who were involved in the treatment and hospitalization of the prime minister during his experiences with Covid-19)
- They also encourage post graduate degrees and further training
- Pay is also slightly above NHS, it is a great alternative for Candidates who are only looking to consider NHS Hospitals.

The Client is based in Southern London, Surrey. The benefits being close enough to enjoy the vibrancy of London, yet not as costly.

If the above is something you would be looking to explore further with us, feel free to get in contact and send us your CV
